Dear Tom

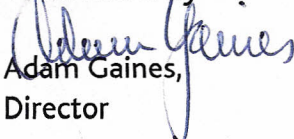

I am writing to thank you for the further cheque for £20,000 arising from the Zipline Challenge which we were so kindly presented with yesterday and I have pleasure as promised attaching a receipt for it .

I also wanted to thank you for doing us the honour yesterday of having so kindly arranged for Alan McNeill and myself to be invited to the Grand Lodge of Scotland to be presented with the magnificent cheque for £115,000 by the Most Worshipful Grand Master Mason . It was a wonderful occasion and an absolute honour.

Once again I would like to reiterate our thanks to you, the Steering Committee the Provincial Grand Masters of the 15 Provinces, the Daughter Lodges and everyone involved with the Zipline Challenge most sincerely for the most wonderful, amazing and hugely successful event. The amount raised of £115,000 is extraordinary and we cannot say thank you enough to everyone who participated and so kindly fundraised to produce such a fantastic result. It is a most remarkable and extraordinary achievement which will help benefit many thousands of men in Scotland - thank you.

With best wishes

Yours sincerely
